WORKSHOP DESCRIPTIONS

Health and Safety – An Introduction – Parts 1 & 2

This 2-part online workshop serves as an Introduction into the world of health and safety, and explores different basic concepts such as:

- identification of hazards;
- hierarchy of controls;
- basic role of health and safety committees;
- basics on the right to refuse.

Note: Completion of this workshop is required to register for both parts. Once both parts are complete, you will have fulfilled the pre-requisite to register for all other workshops in the Health and Safety Learning Series.

How to Build International Solidarity

This workshop explains the role that capitalism plays in workers' lives and examines the links between local and global issues. We will explore how building solidarity with workers in other countries makes the labour movement stronger in Canada and around the world.

LET – Conflict-Ready Executives

In this workshop, participants will explore:

- The value of conflict for effective groups
- How our beliefs about conflict shape how we respond
- The kinds of conflict executives struggle with
- Productive ways to resolve conflict on an executive.

SLS – Grievance Handling

In this workshop, you will share tips and successful practices with other stewards and learn strategies for handling difficult grievances.
