CUPE Manitoba acknowledges with respect that our work and activism takes place on the ancestral lands in all 5 Treaties in Manitoba.

The CUPE Manitoba office is located on Treaty 1 Territory, in Winnipeg. Treaty 1 is the traditional territory of the Anishinaabeg, Cree, Ojibway, Dakota, and Dene Peoples, and on the homeland of the Métis Nation.

As CUPE members, we acknowledge the harms and mistakes of the past, the legacy still with us today and dedicate the work that we do to moving forward in partnership and solidarity with Indigenous communities in a spirit of truth, reconciliation, and meaningful collaboration.

CANADIAN UNION OF PUBLIC EMPLOYEES

Manitoba Division

Workers in the Province of Manitoba are entitled to freedom of organization, full rights of collective bargaining, and economic security. For the attainment of these objectives, all public employees organized into unions of their own choice, chartered by the Canadian Union Public Employees, should be afforded the opportunity to unite into one central body, for their common benefit, to protect the good and welfare and the economic security of all their members.

CUPE Manitoba was chartered as a provincial division of the Canadian Union of Public Employees following the union's Founding Convention in 1963, where the National Union of Public Employees (NUPE) and the National Union of Public Service Employees (NUPSE) merger to form CUPE.

ARTICLE 1 – NAME

This organization, which is a provincial division of the Canadian Union of Public Employees, shall be known Canadian Union of Public Employees Manitoba, and referred to as CUPE Manitoba.

ARTICLE 2 – OBJECTIVES

2.1

This organization was formed to voice and promote the interests, needs and aspirations of affiliated Locals. CUPE Manitoba is organized to give the fullest opportunity for membership participation with the goal of economic and social security for public employees, their families, and the betterment of all.

2.2

CUPE Manitoba will achieve these goals through facilitating discussion, communication, political action, collective bargaining, membership education, and development of action plans and mobilization. It will co-operate with all recognized labour organizations, social action coalitions and other organizations with similar objectives. CUPE Manitoba will report to the members on the effectiveness of measures taken to achieve these goals at conventions and through regular communication between conventions.

2.3

CUPE Manitoba stands unequivocally for equality of treatment regardless of race, creed, colour, sex, gender identity, gender expression, sexual orientation. It opposes discrimination and harassment in the workplace, the community, at Union events, online, and within the Union. CUPE Manitoba opposes all forms of discrimination, harassment, and behaviour that undermines the dignity or self-respect of any individual. CUPE Manitoba will be responsive by proactively working towards equity for all.

2.4 – Safer Spaces

CUPE Manitoba recognizes that safety and inclusivity is a perception based on individual needs and experiences. It is further recognized that to be a welcoming, inclusive union, we must take steps to make CUPE Manitoba events, conferences, and conventions, as safe as possible for all. Through Safer Spaces initiatives, CUPE Manitoba will work to engage both the Safer Spaces Officers and the Safer Spaces Committee in all efforts to create a safer and more inclusive union for all.

- a) urge maximum participation of Locals into the Canadian Labour Congress, the Manitoba Federation of Labour (MFL) and District Labour Councils; and
- b) promote such educational, social and other activities that will benefit affiliated Locals and the Labour movement; and
- c) encourage maximum participation by Locals in the programs of CUPE; and
- d) encourage the exchange of delegates to labour conventions and meetings having mutual interests; and
- e) create safe and inclusive spaces that ensure members are welcome, valued and supported; and
- f) strive to empower members and eliminate the barriers that limit full participation of CUPE members in our union.

ARTICLE 15 – CODE OF CONDUCT

The mandate of our union, the Canadian Union of Public Employees (CUPE), is to organize and defend workers and to promote economic and social justice for our members and for all workers. In carrying out our work, we in CUPE strive to promote our core values which include the principles of solidarity, equality, democracy/integrity, and respect. We are committed to mobilizing our energy and skills to work together to promote these values and to attain these goals in our union, our communities and globally.

CUPE Manitoba is committed to creating a union which is inclusive, welcoming, and free from harassment, discrimination and all types of bullying and intimidation. CUPE Manitoba needs to ensure that we provide a safe environment for members, staff, and elected officers to carry out our work. CUPE Manitoba's expectation is that mutual respect, understanding and co-operation will be the basis of all our interactions.

The Code of Conduct sets out standards of behaviour for participants at CUPE Manitoba Convention, Manitoba conferences, schools, meetings, and all other events organized by CUPE Manitoba. It is consistent with the expectations outlined in the Equality Statement and the CUPE Manitoba as well as CUPE National Constitution.

This Code of Conduct is intended to deal with complaints of inappropriate behaviour at events organized by CUPE Manitoba. It does not apply to complaints arising in the workplace, as those are dealt with through the grievance procedure and /or the applicable workplace harassment policy.

As CUPE members, staff, and elected officers, we commit to one another and to the union to be governed by the principles of the Code of Conduct and agree to:

- Abide by the provisions of the Equality Statement
- Respect the views of others, even when we disagree
- Recognize and value individual difference
- Communicate openly
- Support and encourage each other
- Make sure that we do not harass or discriminate against each other
- Commit to not engaging in offensive comments or conduct
- Make sure that we do not act in ways that are aggressive, bullying or intimidating
- Take responsibility for not engaging in inappropriate behavior due to abuse of alcohol, or other drugs while participating in union activities, including social events

Harassment is objectionable behaviour which may include actions, language, gestures and/or written material and which the harasser knows or ought reasonably to know is abusive and unwelcome. Bullying is a form of harassment which is serious ongoing behaviour which targets an individual or group and which threatens that person or persons' mental and/or physical well-being.

A complaint regarding the Code of Conduct will be handled as follows:

- 1) If possible, a member may attempt to deal directly with the person alleged to have engaged in behaviour contrary to the Code of Conduct, by asking them to stop such behaviour. If that is not possible, or if it does not resolve the problem, a member may bring forward a complaint.
- 2) At Manitoba convention, Manitoba conferences, schools, meetings and all other events organized by CUPE Manitoba, a complaint shall be brought to the attention of an ombudsperson.
- 3) If the complaint involves a staff member, it shall be referred to the Regional Director for investigation and the complaint shall be dealt with in accordance with the applicable staff collective agreement.
- 4) Once a complaint is received, the ombudsperson will work to seek a resolution.
- 5) If this fails to resolve the matter, the ombudsperson shall report the matter to the person in charge, who shall determine whether there is need to remove the member. The person in charge has the authority to expel members from the event for serious or persistent offenses.
- 6) At CUPE Manitoba events where an ombudsperson is not available, a person properly appointed and designated to be in charge shall receive the complaint. Depending on the nature of the problem, the person in charge may attempt to resolve it through conflict resolution. If this fails to resolve the matter, the person in charge shall determine whether there is a need to remove the member. The person in charge has the authority to expel members from the event, and possibly future events for serious or persistent offences.
- 7) If the person in charge is a party to the complaint, the Regional Director or designate shall assume that role.

- 8) In a case where a member has been expelled from an event, the President of CUPE Manitoba shall receive a report on the matter. The Safer Spaces Council shall also receive a redacted report of any such incidents and make recommendations for the parties involved for upcoming events. Should the respondent of the complaint not comply with the recommendations prior to events following they may not be allowed to attend those future events.

This Code of Conduct is designated to create a safe, respectful, and supportive environment within CUPE. It is meant to enhance the rights and obligations outlined in the CUPE National Constitution, the Equality Statement and applicable human rights legislation, not replace them.

CUPE Manitoba encourages all affiliated locals to develop and adopt a Code of Conduct based on this model, to apply to conventions, conferences, schools, and meetings which they organize.

APPENDIX 'C' – EQUALITY STATEMENT

EQUALITY STATEMENT

Union solidarity is based on the principle that union members are equal and deserve mutual respect at all levels. Any behaviour that creates conflict prevents us from working together to strengthen our union.

As unionists, mutual respect, cooperation and understanding are our goals. We should neither condone nor tolerate behaviour that undermines the dignity or self-esteem of any individual or creates an intimidating, hostile or offensive environment.

Discriminatory speech or conduct which is racist, sexist, transphobic or homophobic hurts and thereby divides us. So too, does discrimination on the basis of ability, age, class, religion, language and ethnic origin.

Sometimes discrimination takes the form of harassment. Harassment means using real or perceived power to abuse, devalue or humiliate. Harassment should not be treated as a joke. The uneasiness and resentment that it creates are not feelings that help us grow as a union.

Discrimination and harassment focus on characteristics that make us different; and they reduce our capacity to work together on shared concerns such as decent wages, safe working conditions, and justice in the workplace, society and in our union.

CUPE's policies and practices must reflect our commitment to equality. Members, staff and elected officers must be mindful that all persons deserve dignity, equality and respect.

ÉNONCÉ SUR L'ÉGALITÉ

La solidarité syndicale est fondée sur le principe voulant que les femmes et hommes syndiqués soient égaux et qu'ils et elles méritent le respect à tous les niveaux. Tout comportement qui crée un conflit nous empêche de travailler ensemble pour renforcer notre syndicat.

En tant que syndicalistes, nos objectifs sont le respect mutuel, la coopération et la compréhension. Nous ne devrions ni excuser, ni tolérer un comportement qui mine la dignité ou l'amour-propre de quelque personne que ce soit ou qui crée un climat intimidant, hostile ou offensant.

Un discours discriminatoire ou un comportement raciste, sexiste, transphobique ou homophobe fait mal et, par conséquent, nous divise. C'est aussi le cas pour la discrimination sur la base de la capacité, de l'âge, de la classe, de la religion, de la langue et de l'origine ethnique.

La discrimination revêt parfois la forme du harcèlement. Le harcèlement signifie utiliser du pouvoir réel ou perçu pour abuser d'une personne, pour la dévaluer ou l'humilier. Le harcèlement ne devrait pas être traité à la légère. La gêne ou le ressentiment qu'il crée ne sont pas des sentiments qui nous permettent de grandir en tant que syndicat.

La discrimination et le harcèlement mettent l'accent sur les caractéristiques qui nous distinguent; de plus, ils nuisent à notre capacité de travailler ensemble sur des questions communes comme les salaires décents, les conditions de travail sécuritaires et la justice au travail, dans la société et dans notre syndicat.

Les politiques et pratiques du SFCP doivent refléter notre engagement en faveur de l'égalité. Les membres, le personnel et les dirigeantes et dirigeants élus ne doivent pas oublier que toutes les personnes méritent d'être traitées avec dignité, égalité et respect.
