Dear Gina McKay:

Thank you for writing to share your request to recognize the important contributions of Manitoba's health care support workers.

I am pleased to confirm that the Government of Manitoba will be proclaiming Health Care Support Workers' Week on October 20 to 24, 2025. This week will honour the dedication, skill, and commitment of health care support workers across our province—in hospitals, personal care homes, home care, clinics, and community services.

Health care support workers play an essential role in the wellbeing of Manitobans, and this proclamation is an opportunity to highlight the value of their work and the positive difference they make every day.

On behalf of our government, thank you for your advocacy and for recognizing the vital role of these workers.

Sincerely,
