2026 Winter School COURSE DESCRIPTIONS

MEMBER ENGAGEMENT: SOLIDARITY SCHOOL

We talk about union solidarity, but what does it mean in practice? We spend a lot of time in meetings, yet how often do we stop to think: Who's missing? Are there other ways to get things done? Join this stream if you want to go beyond meetings to deepen skills for member engagement in initiatives and campaigns.

In this session, we will do a deep dive into equity, diversity and inclusion, as well as principles of adult learning and participation. This session is all about how to make space for as many members as possible to get involved and stay involved. This will include human rights topics as well as organizing skills. We will explore how to build effective events and campaigns, understand members' wants and needs, make tough decisions about priorities, set expectations, and pivot when plans change. This session will be especially useful for committees, bargaining teams, and anyone planning campaigns, meetings, and events.

This Winter School course offers custom content and modules from:

- Good Meetings
- Anti-Racist CUPE
- Essentials for Inclusive Unions
- Strategic Planning

Ric McAlpine

Not sure how to handle complex grievances and different types of conflict? Not sure how to support members with accommodation needs? This session draws from Steward Learning and other series to explore challenging situations based on union values, considering the rights and needs of all members.

This Winter School course presents custom content and modules from:

- Conflict Resolution
- What Stewards Need to Know about Arbitration
- Duty to Accommodate
- Representing Members in Front of Management

In order to register, you must have completed the Introduction to Stewarding workshop.

We add fresh examples and content each time, and participants are expected to attend for the full duration of all the SLS modules, even if they have previously taken a module(s).

Please bring your Collective Agreement, Local Bylaws, Steward Handbook and Steward Learning Series Passport
